Conductor & Soloist: Aleksey Igudesman

DEMO REELS

- ▶ Alla molto turca
- ▶ Twinkle Twinkle, You Big Star

Aspiring to bring Mozart's timeless brilliance into the 21st century, Igudesman showcases a unique ability to delve into the depths of Wolfgang's genius.

In his book "Mozart and More," published by Universal Edition, Igudesman skillfully weaves novelty, relevance, and wit into Mozart's cherished compositions. What makes his artistic pursuit stand out is his unwavering commitment to infuse enduring masterpieces with a fresh and playful spirit while preserving their integrity.

A testament to his ingenuity, Igudesman's Mozart reinterpretations have captivated millions of viewers on YouTube, resonating deeply with audiences worldwide. In the „More than Mozart“ program, Igudesman elevates his playful approach to Mozart's music to a symphonic level.

„A Very Little Night Music“ skillfully condenses the most celebrated divertimento of all time into a compact 3-minute masterpiece, preserving its wit and musical brilliance. Meanwhile, „Twinkle Twinkle, You Big Star“ presents a virtuoso reinvention of arguably the world's most beloved nursery rhyme, transforming into a brilliant tour de force of violinistic brilliance. „Alla Molto Turka“ skillfully accentuates the Turkish undertones within Mozart's original composition.

„Rondiño para Wolfgang“ stands as Igudesman's original composition, meticulously crafted in Mozart's style, featuring a delightful transition into the world of tango. This piece offers a glimpse into how Mozart might have interpreted Argentine music, if he had the opportunity to visit Buenos Aires. In „Figure Out What You Want,“ Igudesman ingeniously reinvents the Figaro Overture, injecting an extra dose of humor while preserving its essence. Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, renowned for his mischievous humor, revels in Aleksey Igudesman's delightful endeavors to breathe new life into his music.
