

IGUDESMAN & JOO

The world descends...

... but not into colorful chaos, no. It descends into grey space, grey insipidity, grey oblivion. But salvation arrives: IGUDESMAN & JOO are here to spice up life and make it worth living with their signature mischief and kick-ass humor.

With the help of Mozart, Bach, and other genius composers, Igudesman & Joo will show you the true meaning of the highest form of creativity--music. And only through music can you be saved.

But wait! There's more. In order for you to maintain your new creative flow even after the show, Igudesman & Joo have devised some ingenious exercises perfect for you to gift a little creativity into your everyday life. Not only that, but since it can be hard to remember everything sometimes, all the exercises are available as a book! For more information on risks and post-show side-effects, please ask Mozart, Bach or Beethoven.
